Whether a sacramental program is delivered through the school or the parish, it is imperative that parents are involved. Any child who is eligible to participate in sacramental programs, must have already been baptised. Therefore, parents have clearly taken the first step in guiding their children on the path of faith development. And perhaps Baptism is the most well understood sacrament, or ...

In implementation of this policy Corinda Graceville Parish has made changes to the Parish Sacramental Program which took effect in 2017. All Sacraments are celebrated communally with the active participation of the Parish. For children it is a process of growth in faith from birth to adolescence. The child's readiness is pivotal more so than biological age. Discernment of a child's ...
