When we (Maria and Rick) designed the Zentangle Method, we wanted the best paper and pens we could practically find. We went to an art store and bought samples of all their fine black pens. Then we visited a good friend who sold beautiful paper from all over the world. We sat on the floor of his office and tested each

One of the big draws of Zentangle® is that anyone can jump into it and create something. You don't need any art skills, expensive supplies, or a super-creative mind to create tangle art. Simply draw a random squiggle with a pencil and fill it in with circles, spirals, and other easy patterns (called "tangles"), and that's it—you've created a piece of art.

Easy Zentangle Patterns for Beginners. My favorites are the easy patterns- complicated patterns can look cool, but I like the simplicity and relative mindlessness of drawing the more straightforward patterns. I also love how you can make different variations on the same base pattern by shading or drawing in different areas. In fact, if you jump down you will see 4 variations on the same ...
